Sewing Project

Marin County 4-H Members are invited to join the Pacheco Sewing Project!
FIRST MEETING—SATURDAY, SEP 13TH!

This project will be geared toward middle school and high school aged members with a little sewing experience or a lot.

Meetings will be held at the Marin 4-H Office

Second Saturday of Each Month

10:00 AM to 1:00 PM

1682 Novato Blvd., Ste. 150B, Novato

Projects will include creating useful things and garments from scratch, upcycling thrift store finds, and preparing for Fashion Revue. The project will be led by Sandee Ferguson, a 4-H veteran new to Marin 4-H (Welcome Sandee!)

For help signing up, please contact the 4-H Office at alkeaney@ucanr.edu

COME TRY OUT SHOOTING SPORTS!

If you know a young person who might enjoy learning firearm safety and shooting clay targets in a controlled, supportive setting, please let them know about 4H Shooting Sports! Enrollment will be at our first meetings on September 13th and October 18th at 9:00 AM sharp at the Valley of the Moon Trap Club.

Directions to the location can be found at www.vomtc.org

To save time, please enroll online beforehand by visiting
<http://cemarlin.ucanr.edu/Programs/4-H Program/4hOnline Enrollment/>

Bring a completed Medical form for each club member to the first meeting.

Please note new club members will need to successfully complete the required safety training on at least one of these two days.
